From the Rector

Fr. McDuffie

Dear Friends in Christ,

We are in the season of Lent, and a Wednesday evening Lenten tradition we have started at Christ Church is that of gathering in the Murdock Room to share a simple meal together, watch a film, and discuss its spiritual implications for us. I'm once again looking forward to "Christ Church Goes to the Movies", and I hope some more of you will join us this year. Some of the films we show are not for the squeamish. They are frank, honest portrayals of humanity at its best and also at its worst – but my hope is that in some ways they may help us to deepen our own lives of faith and our relationships with one another and with Christ. So – bring a salad, soup, or simple dish or dessert to share, and let's go to the movies. We have dinner around 6:45 p.m., and our film begins at 7:15 p.m.

Here is a preview of this year's films:

February 25: "Field of Dreams". This 1989 film explores family relationships and the quest for redemption, and (particularly for baseball fans), may just give us a glimpse of what heaven is all about. It features Kevin Costner and James Earl Jones. If we show it, you will come!

March 4: "The Pawnbroker". From heaven, we take a journey into hell. This searing 1964 film stars Academy Award nominee Rod Steiger in a brilliant performance as an isolated, embittered survivor of the Holocaust who works as a pawnbroker in Harlem, and who rejects the efforts of those around him to help him regain his soul – including a young apprentice whose name is Jesus.

March 11: "Philomena". Released in 2013, this is the story of Philomena Lee, who goes on a quest to find her son, who was taken from her and forcibly adopted fifty years earlier. Judi Dench gives a brilliant and poignant performance.

March 18: “Calvary”. In a riveting performance, Brendon Gleeson portrays an Irish priest who receives a death threat from a disturbed young man. The film, released in 2014, follows him in a week of his life as he prepares to meet his would-be assailant. This is a very moving, and powerful film – in the words of one critic, it is “destined to be a classic – perhaps the best Irish film ever made!”

March 25: “Romero”. This 1989 biographical film will be shown the day after the feast day in the Church for Oscar Romero and the Martyrs of El Salvador. Archbishop Romero carried out a compassionate and courageous ministry that confronted the government authorities of El Salvador with their injustice toward the poor, and policies of torture. Raul Julia gives a sensitive portrayal of this late 20th-century martyr for the faith.

We’ll see you at the movies!

Faithfully in Christ,

John+

“The Episcopal Church Welcomes You”
A Saturday Morning Series in March for Newcomers and Confirmands

“The Episcopal Church Welcomes You” is a classic sign that was created years ago, designed to be displayed, and to point to the presence of a nearby Episcopal church. (We would probably have one out on West Jefferson Street if we could, but the City of Rockville is loathe to signage on the street!). I am planning to offer a two-hour class with this title on successive Saturday mornings (March 14th and 21st) in the Parish House, at 10:00 a.m., which is intended to give newcomers to our tradition an overview of Christianity as it is practiced in the Episcopal Church.

We will consider the history of Christ Church, Rockville, its connection to the Diocese of Washington, the structure of the Episcopal Church, and the ways in which Episcopalians have traditionally navigated matters of faith, doctrine, and practice. We’ll also explore our rich heritage of worship, centered in the Book of Common Prayer, and the sacraments of the Church.

This class is designed for people who are new to our community of faith, or who would like to be presented for confirmation, or reception into the Anglican Communion, or for a public reaffirmation of baptismal vows. There will be a service of confirmation at the Washington National Cathedral on May 16th.

If you would like to attend this class, please let me know as soon as possible. We’ll have a sign-up sheet in the Church, and you can contact Judith Schneider in the office at 301-762-2191 or jschneider@cecrockville.org. Please know that if you have children and wish to attend, we can arrange for childcare if you let us know early.

--Fr. McDuffie

Baptism at Christ Church

There is good news in our parish: lots of new babies are being born! I thought I would take this opportunity to explain how we approach the sacrament of Holy Baptism at Christ Church.

The 1979 Book of Common Prayer states that there are four especially appropriate days during the Church year in which to celebrate baptisms. They are All Saints' Sunday (the first Sunday after November 1st each year); the Feast of the Baptism of our Lord Jesus Christ (the first Sunday after the Epiphany, which is January 6th each year; the Eve of Easter (which is coming up this year on April 4th, in the evening); and the Feast of Pentecost (which will be on May 24th this year). There is also a fifth appropriate day, and that is whenever a bishop visits the church (we only have an Episcopal visitation every three years, and Bishop Mariann will visit us later this year, on November 22nd).

At Christ Church we hold to this schedule for baptisms between September and June each year – but we also declare June, July, and August Sundays to be available for baptism, by negotiation with the clergy. Typically, we gather with parents and godparents on the Saturday prior to the baptism to teach about the significance of the sacrament and to review the order of service in our Prayer Book.

If you would like to seek baptism for your child, please contact the Parish Office or let Fr. McDuffie know. We hope to have a joyous gathering at our next baptismal gathering – at the Great Vigil of Easter, Saturday, April 3rd, at 7:30 p.m.!

Jazz Vespers is on March 15th

Our Jazz Vespers band returns with more classics of modern jazz, accompanying the liturgy of evening prayer, on Sunday, March 15th, at 5:00 p.m. A free-will offering gathered that day will benefit our friends at Community Ministries of Rockville. Remember – people who listen to jazz regularly live longer and can be found in higher-income brackets!

Inside Outreach

An update from the Christ Church Outreach Committee

Loaves and Fishes

If, on the third Sunday of the month, you see a group of people not "dressed in their Sunday best," it may be because they are the Loaves and Fishes group. The Christ Church Loaves and Fishes group partners with St. Luke's in Bethesda and with members of the Korean congregation to go to St. Stephen and the Incarnation Episcopal Church at 16th and Meridian in the District to help serve anywhere between 150-250 people in need of a meal. Loaves and Fishes could be called a soup kitchen, although our usual meal is baked chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, greens, gizzards, rolls, and cookies.

Loaves and Fishes began as an outgrowth of St. Stephen and the Incarnation Episcopal Church's practice in the mid-1960s of providing meals after Sunday services. When hungry non-churchgoers began to appear in considerable numbers, the congregation launched a meals ministry and named the program Loaves and Fishes after the miracle described in the gospels. As Loaves and Fishes grew, other churches, including Christ Church, stepped in to help. In addition to helping with our hands, Christ Church also provides financial support to this valuable ministry.

There is no special training needed – just a desire to help feed some of God's people. While we are in the midst of serving the earthly food, St. Stephen's brings the Eucharist to us. If you have questions or are interested, please e-mail Emily Correll (egcorrell@verizon.net) or Bill Thompson (Thompson.william.w@dol.gov).

The Outreach Committee meets the second Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish House. All are welcome to attend and learn more about the opportunities to live our faith through service to those who need us most. For further information, contact Rebecca Browning at rebecca.browning@verizon.net.

Families of Virtue: Nurturing Christian Virtues in Children

Erin Cline, Associate Professor of Theology, Georgetown University

Raising children in the Christian tradition certainly means helping children to develop faith in God and to understand Christian beliefs, but it also means shaping them into certain kinds of people – helping them to develop virtues such as compassion, love, generosity, and gratitude. How can parents and Church families help children to develop these virtues? When and how does moral education begin, and what are the most important aspects of this process? In these two Adult Forums, Erin Cline discusses her research in the area of early childhood moral development and how it applies to us as parents, grandparents, and members of the family of God. Erin is a professor at Georgetown University, author of the forthcoming book Families of Virtue: Confucian and Western Views on Childhood Development, and mother of Patrick (6), Bridget (3), and their little sister (due in May).

Revisiting Adam and Eve

with Fr. McDuffie

Traditional Western theology informs us that humanity suffered cataclysmic losses when the woman (Eve) in the Garden of Eden ate forbidden fruit and give it to her partner (Adam) to eat as well. Human nature was forever corrupted by this act of disobedience, and this fall from grace necessitated an equally cataclysmic act of atonement by Jesus Christ, in his crucifixion.

Oh, really? Just because a couple of people ate pieces of fruit?

The Adult Forum on the Sundays of March 8th and 15th, entitled “Revisiting Adam and Eve”, will dare to ask the question of whether the famous story in the book of Genesis might have other ways of being interpreted that would shed greater light on our theological understanding – particularly as we explore the human condition in the light of modern science. Fr. McDuffie will bravely face down St. Augustine and hundreds of years of classical Western theology in this series.

Welcome Ms. Joey Rick, Canon for Congregational Vitality Religion in the Post-Christendom Age and What It Requires of the Church

Joey Rick is the Canon for Congregational Vitality in our own Diocese of Washington. In that role, she has the pleasure to work with parishes and priests all over the Diocese, helping them find the best in themselves, grow in energy and faith, and build muscles that will strengthen the Church for the future. Joey spends most weekday hours creating Diocesan programs and coaching clergy on effective leadership. She spends evenings and Saturdays with vestries, leading them in retreats and strategic planning. And Sundays find her preaching in our parishes as an ambassador for the Bishop.

Joey’s background is in Organization Development, and prior to joining diocesan staff, she consulted to corporations and federal agencies. Joey lives in Olney with her husband, younger daughter, and dogs. She’s a firm believer that the Kingdom of God is upon us – in every ray of sunlight and every drop of rain alike; that the joy of the resurrection is our birthright; and that among us, we have enough gifts to accomplish anything.

New Acolytes Installed

At the 9:00 a.m. service on February 8th, Father McDuffie installed 5 people as new acolytes at Christ Church. The new acolytes participated in a 7-week training program in the autumn on liturgy and church history, as well as covering the mechanics of serving as we practice it at Christ Church.

The new acolytes began the service wearing only red cassocks. After they promised to be faithful to their duties, the older acolytes vested the new acolytes with white cottas, symbolizing their acceptance of the new members into their fellowship. Each new acolyte received a simple wooden cross on a black ribbon that will be worn during the first year of service. Acolytes who have served for 6 years receive a special cross.

This year, Chad Griffiths, Jack Jackson, John Lynch, and Julie Renfroe received six-year crosses. And, Truly Nguyen received her six-year cross last year – so she has been with us even longer.

Five new acolytes were installed this year – Antonia Frater, Jacob Herzog, Max Maust, Price Nguyen, and Luke Yeatman. They join the 27 other youth who are already acolytes.

There will be a new training class beginning in September. Any youth who will be at least 11 years old next autumn, or in sixth grade or older, please speak to Bob James (240-731-9928) or bobjames3@msn.com).

Environmental Stewardship

Give Up Plastic For Lent (and Thereafter!)

Why give up wine or chocolate when you can give up plastic?

Like diamonds, plastics are forever. Every piece of plastic we have ever used is still here today. It is not biodegradable. Millions of tons of plastic enter the ocean yearly. The sun and waves break it into smaller pieces, creating vast concentrations of flotsam in the ocean. Up to 80% of rubbish in the oceans comes straight from beaches and storm water. Most of it is plastic. It sickens and kills fish, birds, whales, and turtles – up to one million animals a year.

Plastic has insinuated itself into our lives and is ubiquitous. It's a huge effort to give it up completely, but we can begin to take baby steps towards eliminating it from our lives. Developing an awareness and desire to do better is the first step, a prayer in itself.

Baby Steps to Consider

1. Buy food in glass, not plastic, jars
2. Use cloth shopping bags
3. Buy detergent in boxes, not plastic
4. Bring your own container for take-out and leftovers from restaurants
5. Use reusable coffee mug and tableware, stainless steel utensils, glass or stainless steel straws
6. Avoid K-cups for coffee, tea, cocoa
7. Use rubber gloves
8. Buy eggs in cardboard cartons
9. Use a glass blender
10. Use bar soap instead of liquid
11. Give up chewing gum (contains lots of plastic!)
12. Use glass bowls for pet food
13. Use wooden hairbrush with natural bristles
14. Upcycle – Think of new uses for old items
15. Reuse packaging materials from packages sent to you
16. Buy cheese in a wheel wrapped in wax
17. Wear clothing from natural materials – Polyester is made from plastic
18. Use stainless steel ice cube trays
19. Go digital and avoid CD and DVD plastic
20. Skip bottled water. Carry a reusable glass bottle
21. Volunteer at a beach, stream, or river cleanup
22. Add your own ideas! Be creative!

Yoga and the Spirit for Lent

Join our yoga community for three special sessions in Lent on Tuesdays, March 3rd, 10th, and 17th, 2015 from 7:15 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the Murdock Room. Lent is a time of contemplation and introspection. We will focus on breathing, meditation, and scripture to enhance our Lenten practice.

Yoga is about being physically strong, but it is also about being able to separate yourself from the trials and tribulations of life. Together we'll find moments of stillness and peace while we practice on the mat. Yoga and the Spirit provides a well-rounded physical practice as we strive for better strength. It's a time of sharing, and everyone is welcome!

Bring a mat (or let me know if you need one in advance). Enter from the back parking lot directly through the outside Murdock Room doors (which face the Parish House). The classes are free. Donations will be accepted for Episcopal Relief and Development. Contact Cindy Cotte Griffiths at Cindy@OnlineandInPerson.com with questions.

Booktalk

On Monday, March 9, 2015, at 1:00 PM in the Dining Room of the Parish House, Booktalk will hold its rescheduled Poetry Reading. We hope that you will join us, bringing two or three of your favorite short poems to share with the group. We are looking forward to seeing you there.

The ABCs of Spring Cleaning

Attic. Basement. Closet. Spring Cleaning is just around the corner and we hope you will keep The Bargain Box in mind as you sort and discard new or gently used housewares, clothing, books, and small pieces of furniture that you no longer want or need.

Did you know that we also now have a hardware department that stocks a wide variety of computer and phone cables and adapters? So don't throw out those unidentified cables and cords - bring them to The Bargain Box.

The Bargain Box Cooks

You don't have to be Irish to celebrate St. Patrick's Day. "The Bargain Box Cooks" cookbook has many delicious and easy recipes and you can pick one up at the store during the week. Cost is $10 or buy 2 or more for $9 each, cash or check.

"Reptilicus Punch" (p. 13) is a suitably green beverage. "Kermit's Swamp Salad" (p. 26) proves that while it may not easy being green, it is easy to have a healthy green salad. For dessert, serve "Aunt Dickie's Green Stuff" (p. 112). And what St. Pat's Day would be complete without "Irish Soda Bread" (p.83)?

Marcia Chervenak came into the store in January with an unusual donation. While walking on the C&O Canal, she had met a hiker, Richard D. Donahue, Jr, who gave her a winter hat and a $20 bill to donate to a charitable cause. Mr. Donahue carries a bag with him and picks up lost or discarded items that he finds on the towpath. This nice warm winter hat was one such item. He also gave Marcia this $20 bill that a man in a Meet the Press jacket had given him. He wanted to "pay it forward" and help someone else. The Bargain Box thanks this Mr. Donahue and Marcia for thinking of The Bargain Box.
