From the Rector

Fr. McDuffie

Dear Friends in Christ,

I love summer! As an active parish priest, I look forward to a season in which I can have some times to let my mind “lay by its store of troubles”, as the poet Wallace Stevens wrote in “Credences of Summer”, one of my favorite poems. It is good to lower one’s activity level and do some recreational fun things, like travel, go swimming, lie in the sun, go to a ball game, etc. A few years ago I was attending a conference in which a hard-working clergy person said, in effect, “God never relaxes, and so we in the Church shouldn’t relax either.” I felt very guilty, until I remembered the good advice the Rev. George Ross, with whom I served years ago, gave to me. “Summer is the time in the church in which we lie fallow”, he said. Thank you, George!

Of course this does not mean that I want you to stop attending church on Sunday. Please come as often as you can – especially because in this year, we will hear so many good gospel passages from Luke. We’ll be following Jesus and his disciples on the road to Jerusalem.

Also, from mid-June through July, I will be leading a book study group in the Parish House on Sunday mornings at 9:00 a.m. We’re going to be reading and discussing a book entitled Why Christian?, written by Douglas John Hall, a Canadian theologian. Hall has done as good a job as anybody I’ve read in accurately portraying the contemporary cultural landscape we find ourselves in here in North America – a landscape that has changed greatly over the last 50 to 60 years. This book is series of reflections based on an imaginary dialogue that a theology professor is having with one of his college students, who is on what Hall calls “the edge of faith”. As we read these reflections, we’re invited to ask ourselves the questions of what we ourselves believe in, and why we do.

If you’re interested in joining this conversation, do let me know. You can purchase the book from me for $21.00.

Let me close by sharing with you a poem that has become near and dear to my heart. As I write this letter, it is the day after the Feast of Pentecost, the day in which we commemorate the gift of the Holy Spirit given to the disciples in Jerusalem long ago. In England the day is traditionally known as “Whitsunday” which is either a contraction of “White Sunday”, or a use of the old English word “wytte” – i.e., on this Day the “wit and wisdom of the Holy Spirit was given to the disciples.” In her Pentecost sermon, Cindy Simpson passionately and convincingly reminded us all that this gift was not just a one-time bestowal to a chosen few – rather, it is a gift that can come to any of us, at any time, at God’s initiative. As I listened to Cindy speak, I was taken back to a service at the National Cathedral last year, when I was presenting some of our parishioners for confirmation and reception into the Anglican Communion of faith. While people were being confirmed, the Cathedral Choir sang a beautiful anthem called "Listen, Sweet Dove" written by Grayston Ives. The text of the anthem is based on a poem by the 17th-century English priest George Herbert. (I'm hoping that our parish choir can add this anthem to its repertory). Here is the poem, in its entirety, entitled "Whitsunday":

Listen sweet Dove unto my song
And spread thy golden wings in me
Hatching my tender heart so long,
Till it get wing, and fly away with thee.
Where is the fire that once descended
On thy Apostles? Thou didst then
Keep open house, richly attended,
Feasting all comers by twelve chosen men.

Such glorious gifts thou didst bestow,
That th'earth did like a heaven appear;
The stars were coming down to know
If they might mend their wages, and serve here.

The sun which once did shine alone
Hung down his head, and wisht for night,
When he beheld twelve suns for one
Going about the world and giving light

But since those pipes of gold, which brought
That cordial water to our ground
Were cut and martyr'd by the fault
Of those, who did themselves through their side wound,

Thou shutt'st the door, and keep'st within;
Scarce a good joy creeps through the chink;
And if the braves of conqu'ring sin
Did not excite thee, we should wholly sink.

Lord, though we change, thou art the same;
The same sweet God of love and light;
Restore this day, for thy great name,
Unto his ancient and miraculous right.

In this poem, Herbert seems to be lamenting that the day of Pentecost, so bright and powerful so long ago, now seems dimmed; and he ends with the longing that the power of that ancient day be restored.

All I can say is this – on Sunday, May 19th at Christ Church, Rockville, as Cindy preached; as our choirs sang; as we prayed together; as Patrick Slater, Bridget Slater, and Anna Cooper were baptized; as we beheld a gorgeous array of flowers behind our altar; as we welcomed new individuals and families into our midst at a reception downstairs – I felt the power of the Holy Spirit in our midst. We have been, are, and are still becoming, a blessed community.

Have a wonderful and blessed summer. And don't be stranger – come hang out with us!

Faithfully in Christ,

John+

INSIDE OUTREACH

An update from the Christ Church Outreach Committee

LOAVES AND FISHES

Have you ever wondered why a group of people dressed in jeans and old shirts gather at 10:15 a.m. every third Sunday in the Dining Room? They are the Christ Church volunteers for the Loaves and Fishes program at St. Stephen and the Incarnation in DC. Our volunteers join with other groups to serve hot lunch to over 300 people on a typical Sunday.

Loaves and Fishes has served the hungry and homeless on Saturday, Sundays, and on Federal holidays since 1968. Since most Washington food programs serve only on weekdays, Loaves and Fishes offers a crucial service to enable people to eat a healthy meal on the weekend.

Loaves and Fishes does more than serve meals, however. Last October, volunteers conducted a successful voter registration drive, a poignant reminder that being homeless does not mean you give up your rights to citizenship. Loaves and Fishes also works with other social service organizations, such as Samaritan Ministries, to educate their meal guests about programs that could help them escape homelessness and rebuild their lives.

Our band of Christ Church volunteers to Loaves and Fishes can always use more helpers. No training or prior experience required! Call Emily Correll at 301-279-7528 for more information.

The Outreach Committee meets the second Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish House. All are welcome to attend and learn more about the opportunities to live our faith through service to those who need us most. For further information, contact Kelvin Dowd at KJDowd24@gmail.com.

Hunger Walk T-Shirt Contest

There's still time to enter the 2013 Hunger Walk T-shirt Contest. Create an original design for the T-shirt we'll all be wearing at the Hunger Walks this October to aid the work of our Diocesan Hunger Fund. A $100 prize will be awarded for the winning entry.

The contest deadline is July 31, 2013. All participants get the joy of helping hungry people in our Diocese. For submission details, check out the Diocesan website at www.edow.org, go to Ministries, and click on Hunger Fund. Get started today!

July's Booktalk – Nemesis

On Monday, July 8th, Booktalk will discuss Nemesis by Philip Roth. This novel is set in Newark in the summer of 1944 and deals with the polio epidemic and the effect it has on a closely knit, family-oriented Newark community and its children.

We will meet at 1:00 p.m. in the Parish House and discuss the book as we eat our "Brown Bag Lunch." Please join us.

Newcomer Corner

In this section, the Welcoming Committee provides profiles of individuals and families new to Christ Church. Read about new members of our Church family, learn about their interests and involvement here at CEC, seek them out, and welcome them!

The Wood Family

Meet the Wood Family: Sheryl and Andrew and their children Matthew (age 12) and Katie (age 9). The Woods are not your typical Christ Church 'newcomers'. In fact, they have a long history with CEC. Sheryl and Andrew grew up in Rockville and, while they attended St. James in Potomac as children, they also had ties to Christ Church. Sheryl attended Christ Episcopal School from 6th through 8th grades and was confirmed here. After college, Andrew's sister (Betsy Wood Boyd) worked as Christian Education and Youth Leader, and Sheryl helped as a youth leader and running the nursery. Andrew and Sheryl were married here at CEC in 1996.

After marriage and while living in other parts of Montgomery County, the Woods attended other churches. After moving back to Rockville, they also returned to Christ Church this fall, drawn by the youth group and Christian education programs as well as the welcoming congregation and clergy. Matthew is active in the youth group, and both Matthew and Katie participated in this year's communion class. Andrew works as a mechanic, and Sheryl works for Westat on the National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey. Matthew is a 6th grader at Frost Middle School, and Katie is a 3rd grader at Lakewood Elementary.

Welcome (back!) to Christ Church Sheryl, Andrew, Matthew, and Katie.

Music at Christ Church

MASS OF THE MONTH ON JUNE 2ND

On Sunday, June 2nd at the 10:00 a.m. Eucharist, the Choristers and Choir will sing Joseph Haydn's Missa brevis St. Joannis de Deo, accompanied by string trio.

Most likely written in 1775 for the monastery of the Brothers of Mercy in Eisenstadt, it quickly earned the nickname "Little Organ Mass" because of the extended duet between organ and soprano soloist during the Benedictus. In the past decade, it has become a favorite at Christ Church to celebrate the end of the Easter and Choir season.

On June 2nd, we celebrate the Second Sunday after Pentecost and also Corpus Christi – The Body of Christ. In addition to a favorite Gregorian Chant setting of Psalm 96 with bells and congregational refrain, many favorite hymns that day will include "Glorious things of thee are spoken", "Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life", and "God be with you 'till we meet again". Anthems and Motets will include "Love bade me welcome" from Ralph Vaughan Williams' Five Mystical Songs, and Mozart's lovely "Ave verum corpus".

We are blessed in being able to offer polyphonic Mass settings as part of the monthly musical cycle at Christ Church. We hope you are able to join us for these wonderful occasions.

SUMMER CHOIR BEGINS JUNE 9TH

Singers of all ages are invited to help lead the music during June, July, and August. Join us for one Sunday or as many as you can. We rehearse in the Choir Room at 9:15 a.m. directly before the service to prepare a simple anthem, metrical psalm, and service music. While a number of regular Choir members and Choristers sing through the summer, the relaxed schedule allows additional members of the congregation and visitors to sing for specific Sundays.

Speak to Tad Cavuoti at the organ console for more information.

CALL FOR NEW CHORISTERS

It's an excellent time for Boys and Girls in grades 3-8 to plan on joining the Choristers of Christ Church in September. Previous singing experience, while welcome, is not necessary.

Woven into each rehearsal is instruction in voice production, music reading, following the bulletin, and the mechanics of leading a congregation in worship. Choristers are introduced to a wealth of glorious liturgical music, which will last a lifetime. Perhaps in no other area of church work can they aspire to function on the level of adults.

Rehearsals will resume in September on Thursday afternoons 4:30 to 5:30 p.m., in the excellent acoustic of the Choir Room. Choristers sing each Sunday at the 9:00 a.m. service, and on the first Sunday of the month at 11:00 a.m. Speak to Tad Cavuoti at the organ console, or call him at 301-762-2191, ext. 14 for more information.

NOT GOODBYE, BUT 'TIL WE MEET AGAIN

Louise Wager (nee Webster) sang in the high school girls' choir at Christ Church and was a great friend of the VanValkenburgh family. After a number of peregrinations, Louise returned to us to marry Greg, sing Soprano in the Choir, and serve on the Vestry, among other things. Her two daughters, Katie and Laura, began to sing in Choristers this year. Louise served as treasurer for the Choir Pilgrimage to England in 2008. She always maintains a cheerful attitude and takes a practical and positive view of every situation.

This summer, the Wager family will be relocating to the Boston area. We will sorely miss them. In the realm of "we're all connected", Louise is already scouting out good church choirs, and Doug Major (former Organist of the National Cathedral) happens to be at St. Michael's, Marblehead; Mark Dwyer (former Organist of St. Paul's, K Street), is at Church of the Advent; and Richard Webster (formerly at St. Luke's, Evanston) is at Trinity, Copley Square. Again, great thanks to Louise and her family and best wishes for their move.

John Brooks has helped us out as assisting Organist & Choir Director many times in the past four years, especially during the several months of Tad's illness, surgery, and convalescence. He ably took over Chorister and Choir rehearsals, carefully worked on the music portions of the bulletin, skillfully played the rota of services, and cheerfully greeted visitors at the organ console.

John is moving to become Organist-Choirmaster at St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Bristol, Rhode Island. It is an active historic parish (Gothic revival building with great acoustics) boasting a Chorister program and an Adult Choir. We wish John the very best, and suspect that there may be a Christ Church pilgrimage to Rhode Island and Boston in our future.

DENVER CONFERENCE FOR ANGLICAN MUSICIANS

Our music director Tad Cavuoti will be attending the annual conference of the Association of Anglican Musicians in Colorado during the first week of July. Each day, 250 Episcopal organists and choir directors visit at least two churches for worship, recitals, and professional concerns. Venues will include the Cathedral of St. John, St. Andrew's, and St. Paul's in Denver, and the Air Force Academy Chapel and Grace & St. Stephen's Church in Colorado Springs. Workshop sessions include a panel discussion on "Music, Liturgy, and Church Growth in the 21st Century", "Engaging Technology for Church Musicians", and "Bringing your Choir to England."

This is always an invigorating and educational experience – a chance to renew and enlarge upon musical and liturgical friendships – and a chance to pick the brains of the very best Episcopal musicians in the country. In the summer of 2014, the national AAM Conference will take place in Washington DC, where Tad has been an integral part of the planning committee.

Assistant Rector Mini-Sabbatical

After completion of six years' of wonderful ministry at Christ Church, I am taking a mini-sabbatical this coming summer, as is common tradition for Episcopal clergy and supported by our Rector and Vestry. This period provides rest, refreshment, and renewal of body, mind, and spirit. I intend to engage in projects that will nourish my continued ministry at Christ Church as well as my identity as priest, and as daughter of a Louisiana born-and-bred mother whose heritage I wish to more deeply embrace. I hope to combine vacation and sabbatical time "at play in the fields of the Lord."

Specific projects include as time permits:

- Auditing a course at Wesley Seminary, "Coming Home: Hope and Healing for Creation" or "Process Theology"
- Volunteering with the Washington National Cathedral Altar Guild for more training in flower arranging
- Exploring young adult ministry & evangelism with our Diocesan Canons
- Engaging in a silent retreat with spiritual direction
- Visiting family "heritage" locales and extended family in Louisiana

I am grateful to our parish leadership for blessing this time of renewal and look forward to it. I will be away June 10th through August 17th. I thank everyone in our parish for six years of growth, joy, and abundant life I find in our communal life, thanks to your faithfulness and the abiding foundational breath of the Spirit.

ACOLYTE TRAINING CLASS offered in September

We will be offering a training class for new acolytes beginning in September. This is a good opportunity for youth in the parish to participate in our worship services. Candidates should be 11 years old or in grades 6 through 12. Once you have completed training, you will be scheduled to serve on Sunday mornings about once per month. Think about this service to Christ Church during the summer, and contact Bob James for further information or to put your name on the list.

PASTORAL CARE

A Useful Prayer for Loved Ones

Father, I ask you to bless my friends and relatives for whom I care deeply. Show them a new revelation of your love and power. Holy Spirit, I ask you to minister to their spirit at this very moment. Where there is physical or emotional pain, give them your peace and mercy. Where there is self-doubt, give them renewed confidence through your grace. Where there is need, I ask you to fulfill their needs. Bless their homes, families, finances, and their comings and goings. In Jesus' name. Amen.

We Don't Go On Vacation

The Pastoral Care committee continues all its activities through the summer – meetings the first and third Tuesdays in the Parish House at 7:30 p.m.; prayers in the side chapel during services; flower deliveries on Sundays; and most of all, praying for all those on our public and private prayer lists. If you have a prayer need for yourself, a loved one, or a friend or co-worker, call or e-mail the church office, and the staff will pass it on to us. If you would like for the group to pray with you about a particular problem, please feel free to visit one of our meetings.

Jazz Vespers Benefitting the Bishop Walker School for Boys

On May 5th, Christ Church was filled with the beautiful and soulful sounds of the piano, bass, drums, and saxophone to celebrate the Jazz Vespers service benefitting the Bishop Walker School for Boys (BWS). The addition of a dynamic singer added to the spirit that filled the church... Joy, Harmony, and Song... It was amazing! Over 110 people attended the event, and the guests included many board members from BWS as well as Bishop Marianne Budde!

Bishop Walker School is a school east of the Anacostia River for boys who live below the poverty line. The late Bishop of Washington DC's vision for this school was to give the boys a quality education and spiritual background so that the cycle of poverty may be broken and they could, in turn, grow to be stewards of the community. This Jazz Vespers event raised over $2100 for the school to help them purchase breakfast for a year, uniforms for the boys, as well as supplement mental health programs.

Under the direction of Michele Craig, the Youth Group hosted a lively Cinco de Mayo reception for the guests, complete with fabulous Mexican food! It was a festive occasion, and the support and preparation from the youth group was appreciated!

We are planning to make this an annual event! Next spring, please plan to join us for Jazz Vespers to celebrate and raise funds for the Bishop Walker School for Boys! A great event for a great cause!

Respectfully submitted by Stephanie Cromwell, parishioner and board member of BWS.

Summertime Yoga and the Spirit!

Those who have been attending our monthly yoga gatherings like the scripture connections as much as the yoga! We'll continue these open sessions with a couple of dates this summer. Classes are 4:00 to 5:15 p.m. in the Murdock Room on the following Sunday afternoons:

June 30th and August 18th

If you haven't attended yet, drop in! This series of classes is for those at every level (taught mostly in a Hatha/Vinyasa style in a power sequence). We read a brief lesson, introduce ourselves, learn a breathing technique, practice yoga, meditate, and end with a prayer. Classes always have a theme to help everyone go deeper in their faith and practice. We've explored how yoga could help our Lenten discipline, thought about the strong foundations in our life and practice, and contemplated our life and practice as clay in the hands of a potter. Sometimes we partner up and assist each other. It's great sharing as a community!

Bring a mat (or let me know if you need one in advance).

Enter the building from the back parking lot directly through the outside Murdock Room doors facing the Parish House. The classes are free. If you want to contribute, donations will be given to Episcopal Relief and Development. Contact parishioner Cindy Cotte Griffiths, a certified yoga teacher (RYT-200), at Cindy@OnlineandInPerson.com for more information.

The Civil War comes to Christ Church! Saturday, June 29

Mark your calendars for Saturday, June 29, as Christ Church joins with Heritage Montgomery for a commemoration of the 150th anniversary of Jeb Stuart's raid on Rockville, prior to the battle of Gettysburg. The church will host two concerts by the Washington Revels, at 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., with President Abraham Lincoln in attendance at the morning concert. At around 3:30 p.m., General Stuart and his troops will arrive and kidnap some of our Vestry members. There will be other lectures, and presentations of Civil War history in other parts of town that day. For further information go to <http://heritagemontgomery.org/montgomery-county/civil-war-comes-rockville>.

Farewell to Dear Friends of Christ Church

We will gather to celebrate and give thanks for the life of John Preston, Director of Music at Christ Church from 1951-1993, on Saturday, June 15, at 11:00 a.m., followed by the committal in our columbarium and a reception for family and friends.

You are invited to come to the Washington National Cathedral on Tuesday, June 25, at 10:00 a.m., as we celebrate and give thanks for the life of the Rev. Dr. David S. Pollock. A reception will follow at Christ Church, followed by the committal in the columbarium.

DC Urban Adventure

June 23 – June 30, 2013

"Urban" has nothing to do with liberals, and doesn't inherently have anything to do with race – it means "having to do with the city", including city life, style, people, culture, etc.
